Civil Associate – Qualifications include 1-4 years of diversified civil or environmental engineering consulting or internship experience in applying analytical and/or engineering design to define and solve problems and the ability to execute field and office tasks. The selected candidate will have experience involving plan development including, but not limited to site layouts, roadway grading, drainage design, post construction stormwater management design, flow routing, hydrograph modeling, and hydrologic and hydraulic Studies. Experience with Microstation and Inroads software, HEC RAS, Hydraflow or Pondpack is preferred. The selected candidate must be able to work as a team, to travel as required, and to conduct field studies, including lift and carry equipment.

Requirements:

- BS degree in civil engineering, environmental engineering, or related field.
- Familiarity with Pennsylvania Code Chapter 102, NPDES regulations, Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection General Permits, local municipal ordinances, and county conservation district regulations is preferred.
- Must have excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Computer Skills: Must be proficient in MS Office application software such as Excel and Word.
- E.I.T or ability to obtain is required.
- Experience in the natural gas industry is a plus.