THE SAINT THOMAS MORE SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THE 2015
John B. Gest Forum
Legal and Canonical Reflections on Marriage

A discussion on developments in civil marriage and divorce in Pennsylvania and reflection upon canonical standards with respect to marriage featuring:

Harry M. Byrne, Esq.                  Rev. Msgr. Paul A. DiGirolamo, JCD

Harry M. Byrne, Esq., of the law offices of Harry M.
Byrne Jr. in Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania, is a family lawyer with over 30 years of experience handling marriage and custody issues.

Monsignor DiGirolamo is a canon lawyer, the Judicial Vicar of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia Metropolitan Marriage Tribunal, and the pastor of Old St. Mary’s and Holy Trinity Churches.

1 CLE Ethics Credit Included At No Extra Charge

Wednesday, April 22, 2015
12:00 Noon – 2:00 pm

Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads, LLP
Justice Roberts Room, 28th Floor
123 South Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA 19109-1029

Registration: 11:45 am – 12:00 Noon · Luncheon: 12:00 Noon – 12:45 pm · Lecture: 12:45 pm – 2:00 pm

Name: _______________________________ Firm: _______________________________
Address: __________________________________________________________________________
Email: _______________________________ Phone: _______________________________

___ Lunch - $55/Person     ___ $275/Groups of Six

* One CLE credit in ethics included at no extra charge. *

Please make checks payable to “St. Thomas More Society of Philadelphia”

Space is limited. RSVPs strongly encouraged at stmsphila@gmail.com. Checks, which may be delivered on the day of the event and need not be sent in advance, should be made payable to the St. Thomas More Society of Philadelphia, and may also be mailed in advance to Saint Thomas More Society, P.O. Box 58060, Philadelphia, PA 19102.

The Society may also be reached via Suzanne Mintzer, President, 267-238-1996.