Nursing Research for Healthy Communities is focus of Annual Symposium March 28th

Tyonne D. Hinson, DrPH, MSN, RN, NE-BC, Director of Nursing, International Medicine and Global Health at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia is the keynote speaker for our Annual Research Symposium on March 28th, 4-7pm in the Villanova Room of Connelly Center. Dr. Hinson's lecture is "Innovative Partnerships to Promote Healthy Communities." She is an alumna and member of our Board of Consultants.

All are welcome to join the College of Nursing and regional colleagues for this free event. Open to the public, it showcases the scholarship of faculty, students and colleagues in the community. It is jointly provided by the College of Nursing's Center for Nursing Research, Continuing Education in Nursing and Health Care Program and the Alpha Nu Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International.

Crowd gathers in Driscoll Hall for
Naratil lecture on heroin epidemic

2017 cohort

In honor of Villanova University's 175th Anniversary, Dean Fitzpatrick is graciously offering (4) $5000 scholarships to be awarded to accepted, full-time DNP students. Interested students should apply to the DNP program and complete a FAFSA form by April 30, 2017. Candidates will then be notified of next steps.

Our DNP program is practice-focused, designed to prepare Post Master's APRNs and nurse administrators to lead innovation in nursing practice and healthcare. This fully CCNE-accredited program enjoys a 100% completion rate. There are full- and part-time options and online synchronous classes.

"She was homeless and lived on the streets of San Diego. I lived every day in fear of that phone call..." On January 26th, the voice of Sharon Whiteman was the only sound heard in the Driscoll Hall Auditorium as she described her daughter's downward spiral and death from heroin addiction. "It's a cunning and baffling disease," she said. Watch the compelling video as Sharon and experts in addiction, physiology and the law share their experience with the heroin epidemic.
