9. Students are reminded that the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material, such as through peer-to-peer networks, is illegal and violates University policy. Information concerning unauthorized peer-to-peer file sharing is available at http://www1.villanova.edu/villanova/unit/about/policies/copyright.html. Students who infringe copyright are subject to discipline under the Code of Student Conduct up to and including expulsion. In addition, penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or “statutory” damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For “willful” infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys’ fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505. Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense. For more information, please see the Web site of the U.S. Copyright Office at www.copyright.gov, especially their FAQ’s at www.copyright.gov/help/faq.
