EDUCATION MINOR

A minor in Education requires at least 15 credits (4 required courses and one Education elective). The minor in Education does not lead to Pennsylvania teacher certification or qualify one to teach in Pennsylvania public schools.

The following four (4) courses are required for the minor:

- EDU 2201 OR EDU 2202 Social Foundations of Education I/II
- EDU 3251 Psychology of Teaching and Learning
- EDU 3263 Diversity and Inclusion in Education
- EDU 4290 Philosophy of Education

The student may select one elective Education course. Courses include (but are not limited to):

- EDU 2300 Research Seminar in Education
- EDU 3258 Education and Society in the 1960’s
- EDU 3260 Education and Society in World War II
- EDU 3262 Education Pearl Harbor to Sputnik
- EDU 3264 Introduction to Disability Studies
- EDU 4245 Literacy and English Language Learning
- EDU 8400* Critical Perspectives in Special Education
- EDU 8610 Current Issues in American Education
- EDU 8654 Policy Analysis
- EDU 8656 School Law
- EDU 8664 Politics of Education
- EDU 8669 Comparative Education
- EDU 8679 Standards Aligned Systems & Curriculum

*Education courses numbered 8000 or above designate graduate level courses. Undergraduates may take graduate courses in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, provided they meet the following standards set forth by the College: they must have senior standing (in terms of credits, not in terms of years at Villanova), at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, and sufficient background and preparation for a graduate-level course. The student must obtain the appropriate permissions (advisor, chair, undergraduate dean, graduate dean) by filling out a special Permission Card or "gold card" found in the Department Office (Room 302). Undergraduates may take a maximum of two graduate courses in any semester. If an undergraduate takes a graduate class, in that semester s/he is limited to taking a maximum of 16 credit-hours of work.
