Article I. Statement of Purpose and Definitions

Section 1.1 Purpose
The purpose of this document is to establish the Student Government General Election Laws for Villanova University. Candidates must adhere to all rules and guidelines established not only for the campaign and election by the Elections Commission but also for the University as a whole. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that any campaign activity engaged in by the candidate or on the candidate's behalf will be in accordance with these Election Laws. Any candidate who makes false, malicious, deceptive, or slanderous statements about any other candidate involved in a campaign will be penalized. It is the responsibility of the candidates to make themselves and their campaign team aware of all such rules, guidelines, and other regulations. The Elections Commission shall interpret, execute, and enforce all election rules provided in the Student Government Constitution and this Code in a manner consistent with University policy.

Section 1.2 Definitions
A. A party is any candidate and anyone acting on the candidate's behalf.
B. Days are defined as calendar days unless otherwise specified.
C. A formal complaint against a candidate shall be submitted through the form available on the Elections Commission’s VU Groups Page. The link to the Allegation Form may be accessed through the SGA website - sga.villanova.edu.
D. Administrative decisions are decisions made by the Elections Commission pertaining to the election laws.
E. Consequences are penalties and assigned by the Elections Commission to candidates and their parties.
F. A run-off election is a secondary election held between two tickets when no candidate receives the majority of the votes.
G. Majority is defined as the half the number of valid cast votes, plus one.
H. Campaign materials are defined, but not limited to, as all materials, resources, equipment and supplies that are purchased or utilized by the candidate.¹
I. Campaigning is defined, but not limited to, any statement, literature, activity, or deliberate use of materials which has the effect of soliciting for an elective office.
J. Campaign expenditure is defined as any expense incurred by or on behalf of a party for campaigning purposes. This includes any form of donation.²
K. Cyber Campaigning is defined as any form of solicitation of votes through the use of online networking and social media platforms.
L. Instant Messaging is defined as any form of online, real-time communication.
M. Voting Station is a non-partisan place of voting in a public area, established, setup, and maintained by the Elections Commission.

¹If there is a question whether or not something qualifies as "campaign material" ask the Elections Commission before making any assumptions.

²If a campaign team receives a donation you must find and add the “economic cost” of what is being donated to your expenditures.
Article II. The Elections Commission

Section 2.1 Purpose of the Elections Commission
The Elections Commission is an oversight body designed to enforce the Election Laws in a manner that promotes a fair contest among candidates. The Elections Commission supervises all campaign activities of all candidates and is authorized to make administrative and punitive decisions for unfair campaigning practices and along with the Office of Student Involvement, has final authority overall aspects of the elections process.

Section 2.2 Composition

F. Any incumbent is only required to submit petitions with half the required signatures when pursuing the same office.
G. A University student may sign more than one petition, but each petition only once.

Section 3.6 General Requirements
A. It is required that candidates attend a mandatory informational meeting held by the Elections Commission in order to be eligible to run for office. Failure to attend such a meeting by any student involved in the election may make that student ineligible for candidacy.
B. Candidates shall obtain a copy of the Election Laws and submit an executed copy of the Candidates Rules Contract (attached as Appendix A) to the Elections Commission to the Student Government Office on the 2nd Floor Dougherty Hall, by the deadline established on the SGA Election Timeline, which may be accessed through the SGA website – sga.villanova.edu.
C. Candidates must have a working Villanova email account. This will be the primary medium of distribution for the Elections Commission, and candidates are responsible for checking their account on a regular basis.
Article IV. Pre-Election and Campaign Procedures

Section 4.1 Campaign Times for All Candidates
A. Campaign times for all candidates shall be established by the Elections Commission. For specific campaign times and dates, refer to the SGA Election Timeline, which may be accessed through the SGA website - sga.villanova.edu.
B. Candidates may begin campaigning at 8:00am on the campaign start date.
C. Voting will take place within one week of the start of the campaigning period. The polls will be open from noon to noon on the VU Groups webpage for a 24-hour period. This webpage may be accessed through the SGA website - sga.villanova.edu. The election will be held on the dates established on the SGA Election Timeline.
D. In the event of a run-off election, the two tickets with the most votes from the original election will be allowed to continue campaigning until the next round of voting, one week from the first round of voting. If necessary, the run-off election will be held on the date established on the SGA Election Timeline.
E. General campaigning may only take place from 8:00am until 10:00pm. Door-to-door campaigning has its own set of campaigning hours set forth in Section 4.6 of Article IV of this document.

Section 4.2 Expenditures
A. Candidates are not permitted to utilize materials or services valued at more than the amount established by these election laws.
B. All candidates/tickets will be allotted a certain number of posters, free of charge, from the Student Government Association. See below for position specific allotment of printing. These posters will not count towards the candidate's total budget.
   1. Posters must be approved by the Elections Commission prior to printing.
   2. Posters will be printed in the Bartley Print Center using a Student Government Association account.
   3. While candidates are not required to use their allotted posters, these posters will be the only posters excluded from the candidate's aggregate budget.
C. Student Body President and Executive Vice President
   1. The maximum amount of materials and services utilized by any ticket must not exceed $300 in total fair market value. In the case of a run-off, each ticket can spend another $50.
   2. The Student Government Association will pay for 100 posters (8.5”x11”) for each ticket. These posters are not to exceed the size set forth in Article IV, Sec 4.3. However, the total number of posters posted on campus is not to exceed 100 at any time for each ticket.
D. Senators
   1. The maximum amount of materials and services utilized by any ticket must not exceed $100 in total fair market value.
   2. The Student Government Association will pay for 75 posters for each ticket. These posters are not to exceed the size set forth in Article IV, Sec 4.3. However, the total number of posters posted on campus is not to exceed 50 at anytime.
E. Incidental items such as tape and tacks will not be assessed.
F. No candidate or supporter may use the Student Government office or equipment (including phones, printers and/or any materials) for campaign purposes.

Important Note to all Candidates about Approval and Copies from SGA:
All candidates MUST get their posters approved in the Office of Student Involvement, Dougherty 214, by the Director of Student Involvement. Copies can be made in the office or via Iprint but must be confirmed ahead of time with the Director of Student Involvement.
Section 4.3 Campaign Materials

A. Candidates must submit all physical and printed campaign material, including, handouts, buttons, etc., to the Elections Commission via the Office of Student Involvement (217 Dougherty Hall) before being used. This approval is in addition to any approval stamp that is required by the Office of Student Involvement.

B. The Elections Commission will post hours during which members will be available to approve campaign materials.

C. No campaign materials of a permanent nature may be utilized (i.e. spray paint, bumper stickers, chalk etc…) Items such as balloons and buttons are allowed provided that the cost of such items is included in the candidate's total campaign expenditures.

D. Candidates are restricted as to the quantity and size of the materials to be posted. Individual posters within the size limitations may not be connected to create a poster larger in effect than the size restrictions stated in this section.

   1. Presidential and Executive Vice Presidential Candidates are allowed posters up to 11"x17" and are allowed 100 signs at any one time.
   2. Senatorial Candidates are allowed posters up to 8½"x11" and are allowed 50 signs at any one time.

Section 4.4 Electronic Communication and Cyber Campaigning Methods

A. Solicitation

   1. Candidates must use caution with regards to electronic and cyber communications. All communications must be respectful and consistent with University/election rules and regulations.
   2. All forms of electronic and cyber communications may not be used in excess to constitute a nuisance or harassment. Failure to abide by this policy will result in consequences at the discretion of the Elections Commission.
   3. All electronic campaign materials/flyers must abide by the rules and regulations of these Election Laws and University Policy.

B. Release Dates

   1. Campaign-related webpages, social media, and all other forms of electronic and cyber communications may not go live or be used before the official start date of the campaign at 8:00am.

C. Webpages

   1. URLs for candidate webpages must be specified in the candidate's financial statement.
   2. All candidates/tickets wishing to use a website during the campaign must have the contents of the website approved by the Elections Commission. Candidates are advised that these websites will be posted on the Student Government Association homepage, and are therefore subject to University policies regarding acceptable Internet content.

D. Social Media

   1. Candidates are limited to one candidate page/account on each social media platform they use.
   2. All campaign social media pages/accounts must be public, and settings must be set such that individuals must accept to join the group. Individuals cannot be automatically added to that group.
   3. Candidates must add or follow one member of the Elections Commission on every social media page they create related to the election. Names of the members of the Elections Commission can be found on the Elections Commission webpage - https://vugroups.campuslabs.com/engage/organization/ec

E. Instant Messaging/GroupMe

   1. Candidates and campaign workers may only send messages to GroupMe chats, and other similar instant messaging groups, with which they have had prior communication.
   2. Candidates and campaign workers may only send two messages per chat/group over the course of the entire campaign.
   3. Candidates and campaign workers may not send unsolicited messages to students on an individual, one on one, basis.
F. Emails
1. The use of Villanova University Distribution Lists, such as the Wildcat Newswire, is strictly prohibited.
2. Mass emails may only be sent to personal lists. Candidates and campaign workers may only send group emails to personal acquaintances with whom they have had prior communication.
3. Candidates and campaign workers may send emails to members of groups to which they belong endorsing a specific candidate. Candidates and campaign workers may only send two emails per group over the course of the entire campaign.
4. Although members and leaders may vocalize their support of a candidate, clubs, student organizations, and other extracurricular entities as a whole may not endorse a specific candidate.

G. Class Accounts
1. Candidates may cyber campaign through class Facebook accounts, GroupMe chats, etc.
(ex: Villanova Class of 20xx) Communications on such pages may not exceed one per day.

Section 4.5 Posting of Campaign Materials

Only materials approved by the Elections Commission and the Office of Student Involvement maybe posted. Compliance with these rules is required. All rules issued by the Office of Student Involvement must be followed and are incorporated herein by reference. Posters maybe placed in designated areas only and never on painted surfaces, glass windows, or doors. In addition, posting in classrooms, computer labs and religious facilities are not permitted. Each building has special requirements as noted below. If you have questions about a particular building, you may ask the Office of Student Involvement, the Dean’s office of the building in question (if applicable) or the Elections Commission.

B. Candidates may not engage in slanderous and/or unethical campaigning. The Elections Commission and Office of Student Involvement reserves the right to request immediate retraction of materials or statements of this kind as well as disqualify candidates based on such conduct.

C. As all campaigning must abide by the Code of Student Conduct, the Elections Commission reserves the right to contact the Office of Student Involvement, who will reach out as necessary to other appropriate offices.

Article V. Violation of Election Laws

Section 5.1 Consequences and Appeals
A. Violation of any of the Election Laws by a candidate or a supporter of a candidate, with or without the knowledge of the candidate, will subject the candidate to consequences as stated in Section 5.1.C

B. Anyone wishing to make an allegation of a rules violation by a candidate or a supporter of that candidate must do so before Election Day, if possible. Allegations will be reviewed and investigated within 24 hours of the incident, or at the discretion of the Elections Commission. Allegations should be submitted through the Allegation Form available on the Elections Commission’s VU Groups Page, which may be accessed through the SGA website – sga.villanova.edu.

C. The following consequences are available to the Elections Commission in the event that the Commission, in conjunction with the Office of Student Involvement, determines that a candidate is responsible for a rules violation (directly or indirectly). The Elections Commission has the responsibility to classify any reported offenses and implement the appropriate sanctions. Failure to abide by assigned consequences will result in the automatic escalation of offense to the subsequent level. The examples provided below are strictly examples, and offenses are subject to the situation and discretion of the Elections Commission. The consequence structure will be implemented as follows:

1. Petty offenses (possible examples, including but not limited to: poster violations, campaigning outside of designated hours) will be dealt within the following manner (including on Election Day):
   i. First offense: Warning (may include time to fix the problem, for example if two posters where put in illegal places the party would only be penalized for the first and told they have 12 hours to fix any other similar situations)
   ii. Second offense: mandatory 4 hour suspension and loss of 10% of posters from total number allowed on campus.
   iii. Third offense: mandatory 8 hour suspension and loss of 10% of budget ceiling.
   iv. Fourth offense: mandatory 24 hour suspension and loss of 20% of budget ceiling.
   v. Subsequent offenses: Disqualification.
2. Minor infractions (possible examples, including but not limited to: posting unapproved campaign materials, minor budget infractions)
   i. First offense: mandatory 4 hour suspension from campaigning and loss of 10% of posters from total number allowed on campus.
   ii. Second offense: mandatory 24 hour suspension from campaigning and loss of 20% of budget ceiling.
   iii. Subsequent offenses: Disqualification

3. Major infractions (possible examples, including but not limited to: tearing down opponent's campaign material, gross budget violation, slanderous campaigning) The Elections Commission has the authority to impose severe consequences for major violations, including, but not limited to, the following:
   i. 48 hour suspension from campaigning and loss of 25% of posters from total number allowed on campus
   ii. Loss of potential votes gained through major infractions (not to exceed 10% of total votes)
   iii. Lowering of candidate's/ticket's budget ceiling
   iv. Suspension of campaigning on Election Day
   v. Subsequent offenses: Disqualification

*Candidates may appeal the Elections Commission's decisions and assigned outcomes to the Director of Student Involvement.

Article VI. Voting Procedure

Section 6.1 Qualifications
Any full-time and/or part-time student who wishes to vote may do so by web registration.

Section 6.2 Procedure
A. A student may vote only once via VU Groups. A link will be e-mailed to the student body. This webpage may also be accessed through the SGA website - sga.villanova.edu.
B. Once a student has cast his/her vote, the vote cannot be undone.
C. Candidates and their supporters may not maintain voting stations. All voting stations must be manned by an Elections Commission Member, a non-partial SGA Executive Board Member, or faculty advisor. Candidates and their supporters may not approach students with a computer and advise them to vote.
D. The winning ticket for the Student Body President and Executive Vice President must receive majority of the total votes cast for President and Executive Vice President.
E. In the event that no ticket receives majority of the total votes cast, a run-off election will be held within one week of the original election. The run-off election will be between the two tickets that received the two highest totals of votes cast in the original election.

Article VII. Election Day Rules

Section 7.1 Election Day Rules
A. Election Day will last 24 hours, from noon one day to noon the following day. The specific dates will be set by the current SGA Executive Board at the start of the Spring Semester of the election.
B. A candidate and his/her supporters will remain under election laws throughout the election process. A major infraction may result in removal of the candidate from the ballot. Therefore, a candidate may be disqualified while voting is in progress. Furthermore, a decision for disqualification may be made after the closing of the polls.
