ALCOHOL INCIDENT...
WHAT HAPPENS?

- If the student who called has been drinking, there are no disciplinary sanctions for violating the alcohol policy.
- If the student who called violated other policies, he/she may be subject to disciplinary sanctions under the Code of Student Conduct.

A student calls Public Safety for assistance with another student.

Public Safety conducts initial evaluation (may include PBT).

- The student is released.
- VEMS is requested to conduct a secondary medical evaluation.

The student is released.

The student is transported to the hospital.

Residence Life Staff, Public Safety and/or Off-Campus Law Enforcement reports incident to the Assistant Dean of Students.

The Assistant Dean of Students reviews the incident report and determines whether next steps will be disciplinary or non-disciplinary based on the following criteria:

- Level of severity
- Type and quantity of alcohol
- Attendant circumstances
- Past behavior of the student

POLICY REMINDERS

- The alcohol policy is non-punitive in nature. The majority of sanctions for violations result in warnings or educational requirements.
- Off-campus violations may also be subject to the Code of Student Conduct.
- University Staff may open and inspect refrigerators when alcohol is present.
- Fines for alcoholic beverages include:
  - $50/six pack $200/case of Beer
  - $50/750 mL bottle of wine
  - $150/750 mL bottle $300/handle of Liquor
- The Office of Education Abroad does not allow any student on disciplinary probation to study abroad during the probation period.
- Sanctions of suspension, revocation of housing, loss of good standing and expulsions may be appealed.

NON-DISCIPLINARY

- The student is referred to the Community Standards Coordinator (in the Office of Health Promotion) for alcohol education and a conversation about healthy decision making.
- Once the student has completed the Community Standards process no disciplinary sanctions are issued.

NON-DISCIPLINARY

- The student(s) involved meet(s) with the Assistant Dean of Students to discuss the incident. If responsible, the Assistant Dean issues a sanction based on the following criteria:
  - Comments and statements made during the meeting
  - Disciplinary history
  - Disciplinary precedent
  - Past behavior of the student
- Disciplinary sanctions include warnings, probation, suspension, loss of housing, expulsion and other restrictions.

Students are referred to the Assistant Dean of Students for Alcohol and Drug Intervention for additional educational follow-up.
