External Scholarship Resource Guide

This list of outside scholarships is not under the auspices of the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, but it is provided to you as a guide in your research for obtaining other sources of aid. Please be advised that there are probably additional requirements for each scholarship and the award amounts, deadlines, etc. may change from what is posted below. If you have questions about these scholarships or if you need more information including how to apply, please contact each sponsor listed below directly. Remember that if you are awarded an outside scholarship, you are required to report it to the Office of Financial Aid.

Avoiding Financial Aid Scams: For additional information on outside scholarships, please visit the Department of Education’s Scholarship section of their website to help you in your search and to educate yourself on avoiding scams. To file a scam complaint or to receive free information on consumer issues, you can contact the Federal Trade Commission at 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357) or at www.ftc.gov/scholarshipscams.

According to the FTC, these are tell-tale signs of financial aid fraud: The scholarship is guaranteed or your money back, You can’t get this information anywhere else, I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship, We’ll do all the work, The scholarship will cost some money, You’ve been selected by a “national foundation” to receive a scholarship or “You’re a finalist” in a contest you never entered.

Emery Reddy, PLLC is an Award-Winning L&I Workers' Compensation and Employment Law Firm Serving Injured Workers in Washington State.

Our mission to help and empower workers extends beyond our community and into the next generation, and we are proud to offer an annual scholarship to empower students in pursuit of higher education.

Emery Reddy, PLLC is offering its annual scholarship to law school and college undergraduate students. A total of $5,000 will be awarded as follows:

- $2,000 – to one selected law school student
- $1,000 – to three selected undergraduate (university/college) students.

Scholarship Submission Guidelines And Rules

Before you submit your scholarship application, please read through the submission criteria to make sure you qualify and are submitting your essay to the correct scholarship category. Any application that does not meet or follow the guidelines will be disqualified.

General Rules

- Student must be a US citizen or a permanent resident;
- Student must be currently enrolled in or recently accepted to an accredited US law school (Legal Studies scholarship) or accredited US college or university (Undergraduate scholarship);
- Winner(s) will be required to provide proof of residency and enrollment or acceptance.

Application Requirements

Students must submit an original and compelling essay of 400-600 words answering the essay prompt below. Essays should follow a basic essay and paragraph format including an introduction with body paragraphs and a conclusion. Creativity is encouraged! Please avoid disclosing any personal identifying information (PII) such as name, address, contact information, or resumes within the body of the essay.

- Legal Studies Scholarship Prompt: What compelled you to become a lawyer? Are there any special areas of law that you want to target, and what goals do you want to accomplish as an attorney?
- General Scholarship Prompt: What degree are you pursuing and why? How will you use your degree/education to serve your community?

Judging and Recognition Procedure

Winners will be selected by a panel of qualified members from Emery Reddy and will be based upon the candidate's fulfillment of entry criteria and their ability to answer the prompt clearly and concisely.

Each of the scholarships is a one-time, monetary scholarship award to be used for academic tuition only. Winner(s) will be notified via email and the award will be distributed to the recipient's educational institution once their enrollment has been verified.

Please direct all questions and inquiries regarding the scholarship to scholarships@emeryreddy.com.

Ogletree Deakins' ODBAR (Black Attorney Resource Group) is pleased to announce its second annual scholarship. The David E. Jones Scholarship will be awarded to a deserving law student in good academic standing at an institution with a duly registered National Black Law Students Association (NBLSA) chapter or who has an individual NBLSA membership.

The winner of the $10,000 scholarship will also receive an invitation to the ODBAR summer event in Philadelphia on July 13, 2024.

Applicants must submit an essay of no more than five pages,
double-spaced, on the following topic:

Uniform AI?: The integration of artificial intelligence (AI) into employment decisions has become increasingly prevalent in today's rapidly evolving technological landscape. As organizations leverage AI for tasks such as recruitment, performance evaluation, and talent management, a critical question emerges: Should there be universal rules governing the use of AI in employment decisions or should governance be left to the several states?

In 5 pages or less, please write a persuasive essay concerning who is best to govern the use of AI for hiring, disciplining, and firing decisions. Consider factors such as ethical and privacy concerns, efficiency, and principles of federalism in your response.

Applications will be accepted
February 7 – March 13, 2024
Please submit your application to Pearl Brady at pearl.brady@ogletree.com.

Under the NBLSA constitution, student membership is open to any natural person matriculating at an accredited law school within the United States of America and its territories.
