Class of 2016 - Freshman Council Results
By: Lizzy Heurich - SGA Public Relations Committee Co-Chair

The Student Government Association recently welcomed three new members to its 2012-2013 leadership team. Freshmen elections were held the week of October 22-27. The three highest vote getters were Darren O’Brien, Adi Alphonso, and Win Su. The three newly elected officers will act as a liaison between the freshmen class and SGA, plan events for the freshmen class, and serve as a member on one of the seven SGA committees.

- O’Brien, a Finance major from Fairfield, Connecticut, will be serving as the freshmen class president. Already having experience in student government serving as treasurer in high school, O’Brien is excited for the upcoming school year. With goals in mind for the freshmen class, including extended hours in the dining halls, O’Brien plans on working hard to accomplish initiatives for the freshmen class.
- Alphonso, an undeclared Business student from Dubai, is the new freshmen class vice president. Serving alongside O’Brien and Su, Alphonso looks to continue increasing communication between University administration and the student body.
- Su, who hails all the way from Bangkok, Thailand, will be serving as the freshmen class representative. All three are very excited to assume the new responsibilities that their roles will bring. They would like all freshmen to feel comfortable approaching them with ideas or concerns through the rest of this year.
