REVIEW, INVESTIGATION, AND RESOLUTION
The University will assist any Complainant or Respondent in understanding the complaint process outlined in this policy. There are several options available to resolve a report of sexual assault, sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct, which also includes dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking. These options include both on- and off-campus processes. In general, the University, in consultation with the Complainant, will pursue an investigation.

- Complaints against students will be resolved under the applicable provision(s) of the Code of Student Conduct.
- Complaints against employees will be resolved by the appropriate University process.
- The Sexual Assault Resource Coordinator or the Dean of Students Office can assist with: academic, housing, or other accommodations; referrals; and other needed support.
- Residence Life can also assist with housing accommodations.
- Public Safety or the Dean of Students Office may issue a No-Contact order.
