

FREEMAN FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
$5,000 for Internships in East and Southeast Asia

The Center for Global Leadership and the Office of Education Abroad are pleased to announce that we are accepting applications for a $5,000 scholarship to fund study abroad programs in East and Southeast Asia that include an international internship. Funding is generously provided by the Freeman Foundation.

Eligibility Requirements

- ✓ US Citizenship or Permanent Residency required
- ✓ Demonstrated financial need
- ✓ Overall 3.0 or higher GPA
- ✓ Study abroad must be in East or Southeast Asia and include a 3 credit VSB internship component (example: Shanghai Business Internship Program, Global Citizens Hong Kong; other locations require additional approval)

Those interested in applying for this scholarship must submit their resume and an essay with their name and student ID addressing the following questions to Kim Cahill, CGL Director kimberly.cahill@villanova.edu:

1. Why do you want to complete a study abroad program with an international internship in Asia and what led you to choose your destination?
2. What are your academic and career goals and how do you see your international internship in Asia enhancing these plans?
3. How would receipt of this scholarship help you complete an international internship?
