Three Spring Webinars
Learn more from brand new research by the Center for Church Management research fellows
Participation is free and open to the public

New Research on Latino Congregations

Friday, February 9 at 2:00 PM ET
The Latino Experience at Catholic Parishes in the United States: A Stakeholder Analysis Approach
Eduardo Millet, Ph.D. is a professor of strategy and entrepreneurship. His current research interests focus on the intersection of business model innovation and Faith-based organizations. Eduardo has presented research at the Academy of Management Annual Meetings, Decision Science Institute, and a variety of seminars, research symposia, and colloquia.

Friday, February 16 at 2:00 PM ET
Finances in U.S. Latino Congregations: Trends from the Faith Communities Today (FACT) and Exploring the Pandemic Impact on Congregations (EPIC) Surveys
Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi, Ph.D. is an Assistant Professor of Leadership and Formation and Director of the Office of Professional Formation at Iliff School of Theology. Her research interests lie at the intersection of pastoral leadership, congregational studies, and theory and practice within BIPOC communities. She is an Ordained Minister in the United Church of Christ.

New Research on Catholic Foundations

Friday, February 23 at 2:00 PM ET
Catholic Foundations: An Analysis of Governance Structures, Transparency and Financial Performance
Stephen J. Porth, Ph.D. is a Professor of Management at Saint Joseph's University and a Research Fellow at Villanova’s Center for Church Management. He received the Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching at Saint Joseph’s. His research and teaching interests are in the areas of organizational strategy, ethics, servant leadership, and managing financial challenges faced by church leaders.

Register Now

This series is part of the Center for Church Management’s continuing education for lay and ordained church leaders, funded by a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment’s National Initiative to Address Economic Challenges Facing Pastoral Leaders and by benefactors of the Center.