

Money and the Church Webinar Series

“For the love of money is the root of all evils, and some people in their desire for it have strayed from the faith and have pierced themselves with many pains.” -1 Tim 6:10

Financial pressures can often impair clergy and lay leaders’ ability to lead their communities effectively. It can lead some to stray from the faith and cause much pain, but it does not have to be that way. Please join us for the Center for Church Management’s newest webinar series on “Money and the Church” and consider some alternatives to how many churches traditionally approach this critical part of the mission.

Friday, January 8 at 1:00 PM EDT

Rebuilding the Way We Fund Our Mission

Tom Corcoran serves as lay associate to the pastor at Church of the Nativity in Timonium, Maryland and is responsible for weekend message development, strategic planning, and staff development.

Rev. Michael White is a priest of the Archdiocese of Baltimore and pastor of Church of the Nativity in Timonium, Maryland.

Together, Tom and Fr. White have co-authored Rebuilt, Tools for Rebuilding, Rebuilding Your Message, The Rebuilt Field Guide, ChurchMoney, Messages of Hope, and Messages of Trust.

Friday, January 15 at 1:00 PM EDT

Latinx Catholic Financial Giving and Clergy Responses: The Impact of Relevant Stewardship Frames

Maureen K. Day, PhD is an Assistant Professor of Religion and Society at the Franciscan School of Theology, and a Research Fellow at the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate at Georgetown University. Dr. Day is the author of Catholic Activism Today: Individual Transformation and the Struggle for Social Justice and Young Adult American Catholics: Explaining Vocation in Their Own Words

Friday, January 22 at 1:00 PM EDT

COVID-19’s Impact on Parish Giving: New Benchmarks and What We Should Do in 2021

Matthew F. Manion, MSCM ’11, is the Faculty Director of Villanova’s Center for Church Management and Master of Science in Church Management degree program. He is also a professor of practice in the Management and Operations Department of the Villanova University School of Business.

Charles E. Zech, PhD, is a professor emeritus at the Villanova School of Business and is the Founder of Center for Church Management. Dr. Zech is the author or co-author of 55 articles and 13 books on the topic of church management.

Learn More

Register Now

This series is part of the Center for Church Management’s continuing education efforts for lay and ordained church leaders. It is funded by a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment’s National Initiative to Address Economic Challenges Facing Pastoral Leaders and by benefactors of the Center.