

2021 Ethics Symposium

Our presenters this year are as follows:

Group I-CST/Christian Ethics

Megan Russelman

“The Ethical Implications of Raising the Minimum Wage”

Kylie Lawlor

“How the United States is Failing its New Parents and Children”

Ava Lundell

“Natural Law and the Federal Role in Public Education”

Grace Lundell

“The Ethics of US Military Humanitarian Intervention”

Madeline Cerulli

“Moral Alternatives to Current Criminal Justice: An Exploration of Restorative Justice in the Context of Community Principles”

Group II-Applied Ethics

Megan Tumelty

“Neuroprosthetics for Enhancement”

Brendon Donoghue

“Ethical Parenting: Designer Babies and

Preimplantation Genetic Diagnosis from a Kantian Deontological

and Aristotelian Virtue Theory Perspective”

Nicole Gracyck

“Utilitarianism and Medical Ethics: Allocation of Scarce Resources in Public Healthcare”

Allison Bajada

“Heading Down the Right Path: The Future of Prenatal Testing for Trisomy 21”

Erica Mallon

“Human Challenge Studies are Morally Impermissible for COVID-19”

Group III-Socratic Analysis

Angela Strelevitz

“The Ethics of Hydraulic Fracturing in the United States”

Sean Sautner

“Kant’s Versus Mill’s Conceptions of Will and Comparison to Virtue Ethics”

Madeline Scolio

“Courtesy or Cruelty: Disclosure of Fatal Diagnoses with Consideration for Cultural Conflicts”

Emma Cottage

“Permission to Lie?”

Morgan MacCartney

“The Case of Walter Wallace: A Justification of Self-Defense”

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR SYMPOSIUM WINNERS:

Brendon Donoghue

Grace Lundell

Sean Sautner