

Summer 2018 Internship Alert

Thorn Run Partners (TRP), an elite D.C.-based government affairs firm, is seeking a full-time Summer Intern with an interest in federal policy and politics to aid Thorn Run's federal lobbyists on projects related to legislative research, writing projects, data entry and other administrative issues. Strong research and analysis skills are imperative for this position. Thorn Run is looking for a self-starter who is prepared to adapt to a fast-paced environment, maintain keen attention to detail, and take the initiative to perform everyday responsibilities with a refined level of professionalism.

This internship is an unpaid position.

How to Apply

Interested applicants should email a brief cover letter and resume to smccarthy@thornrun.com with the code 112817 in the subject line. Please note any prior experience in politics, legislative analysis, or government affairs.

Required Skills

Excellent research and writing skills

A strong interest in the legislative process

Proficiency with general computer applications and information technology

About Thorn Run Partners

Established in 2010, Thorn Run Partners is a leading government affairs firm whose members are Capitol Hill veterans with over a century's experience in federal lobbying, government service and policy development. Unique for its bipartisan composition and client-friendly size, Thorn Run was founded by former aide to Democratic Senator Edward M. Kennedy (MA), Andy Rosenberg, and former aide to Republican Senator Fred Thompson (TN), Chris Lamond.