St. Coletta of Greater Washington is a non-profit organization, which serves children and adults with intellectual disabilities, autism, or multiple disabilities. Within the organization is a special education school, which serves students, ages 3-22 years old. Each student has an IEP, and in addition to participating in classroom activities, is able to receive various forms of therapy on campus. The school is located in Washington, DC, and community based instruction is an important part of the programming, as are activities focused on teaching vocational and life skills. In addition to receiving support from their supervisors, newly hired teachers at our school have mentor teachers. Each teacher has a Teacher Assistant, as well as Classroom Paraprofessionals, and receives assistance and collaboration as needed from the therapy services and behavior analysis staff. We are hiring teachers for the 2016-2017 school year, and also have current openings for teachers and other positions! To apply or learn more about our employment opportunities and benefits, please visit www.stcoletta.org. You may also email chloe.harrell@stcoletta.org with questions.
