Checking Your Registration Status

1. Before searching for courses, it's important to check your registration status to ensure you're eligible to register when the time comes.
2. Click "Check Your Registration Status."

3. Select the term you're preparing to register for, then click "Continue."

4. On this page, you can see your student status and determine whether any holds might prevent registration. If you have a hold on your account, please contact the Office of the Bursar as soon as possible so we can determine the cause and help you find a solution.
5. Once you've reviewed your registration status, click the registration link to return to the main page.
