

Student Life Committee

October 2016

Report submitted by Adriano Duque, Dept. of Romance Languages and Literature

The meetings at the Student life committee have been merely informative. Every student has been reporting on upcoming events and raising concerns about the construction schedule, the arming of police officers and the outcome of parent's weekend.