OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Law Offices of Paul B. Episcopo, Ltd. (Chicago, Illinois, USA) 1999-2002

Civil Trial Lawyer

Specialized in medical negligence and wrongful death litigation in one of Chicago’s premiere personal injury law firms. Obtained record-setting jury verdict of $10.62 million in medical malpractice trial and $3.5 million jury verdict in wrongful death case involving shooting death of victim by Chicago Police officers. Managed trials and settlement awards in excess of $35 million.

DePaul University College of Law (Chicago, Illinois, USA) 2001

Adjunct Professor of Law, Domestic Violence and the Law Seminar

First Health Group Corp. (Downers Grove, Illinois, USA) 1998-1999

In-House Litigation Attorney

Managed federal and state litigation as in-house assistant litigation counsel, on behalf of multi-national managed health care and employee benefit corporation. Responsibilities included supervision of outside counsel in on-going litigation and internal policy and procedure development/implementation for purpose of risk avoidance and management. Areas of responsibility included employment discrimination prevention and response, FMLA compliance, vendor and real estate contract disputes, managed health care plan document interpretation, stop-loss umbrella insurance reporting systems, ERISA compliance, and state managed-care statutory requirement compliance.

Champaign County State’s Attorney’s Office (Urbana, Illinois, USA) 1996-1998

Supervising Prosecutor, Domestic Violence Unit

Served as lead prosecutor in hundreds of domestic violence prosecutions. First-chaired approximately thirty domestic battery jury trials and hundreds of bench trials and hearings. Developed and established venue’s first policies and procedures for the specialized management of domestic violence cases, enabling prosecutions to proceed without reliance upon victims’ testimony or cooperation at trial. Increased conviction rate in domestic violence cases by over 200%. Trained one-hundred-thirty law enforcement officers in the collection of evidence in domestic violence cases.
