

SANTIAGO MOLLIS

299 N. Spring Mill Rd.
Philadelphia, PA, 19085

+1 (610) 519 7074
santiagomollis@gmail.com

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Visiting Assistant Professor of Law – Villanova University Criminal Law (Fall 2024)	Aug 2024 – Present
Adjunct Professor of Law – Cornell Law School The Law and Politics of the Carceral State (Spring 2023; Fall 2023) Why and How Do We Punish? (Spring 2024) Convenor Academic Professionals Workshop (Spring 2024)	Jan 2023 – May 2024
Graduate Student Lecturer – Cornell Law School The Law and Politics of the Carceral State (Fall 2021)	Aug 2021 – Dec 2021

EDUCATION

J.S.D. Cornell Law School, Ithaca Dissertation Title: Toward a Victim-Oriented Response to Crimes Dissertation Committee: Mitchel Lasser (chair), Aziz Rana, Stephen Garvey, and Andrei Marmor	2018 – 2023
Master of Laws, Cornell Law School	2017 – 2018
Abogado (Bachelor of Laws), Universidad de San Andrés (Argentina) Magna Cum Laude	2009 – 2014

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS (ENGLISH)

“Towards a Victim-Oriented Criminal Process” 62 AMERICAN CRIMINAL LAW REVIEW [forthcoming 2025]

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS (SPANISH)

With Gustavo Beade, Fernando Braccacini and Santiago Mollis (eds.), Castigo, Proceso y Teoría Política, Marcial Pons, 2023.

“Una respuesta orientada a las víctimas” in Gustavo Beade, Fernando Braccacini and Santiago Mollis (eds.), Castigo, Proceso y Teoría Política, Marcial Pons, 2023.

With Fernando Braccacini (eds.), “Dossier: Discutir castigo y democracia” in 16 REVISTA JURÍDICA DE LA UNIVERSIDAD DE PALERMO, 2018.

With Larisa Zerbino, “Mujeres encarceladas y el ideal resocializador. El acceso al trabajo como herramienta de integración social post-penitenciaria” in Mauro Lopardo (ed.), El Debido Proceso Penal, Vol. 4, Hammurabi, 2017.

“Juicio por jurados y abolicionismo penal: una relación inesperada” in 14 (1) REVISTA JURÍDICA DE LA UNIVERSIDAD DE PALERMO, 121-154, 2015.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Max Planck Society Scholarship for research stay at the Max-Planck-Institut zur Erforschung von Kriminalität, Sicherheit und Recht (Freiburg, Germany)	Feb 2022 – Aug 2022
Cornell Law School Graduate Fellowship	Aug 2018 – Dec 2021
Cornell University Graduate School – Research Travel Grant for research stay at Universitat Pompeu Fabra (Barcelona, Spain)	Jan 2020 – Mar 2020
Cornell Graduate Legal Studies Law Fellowship	Jun 2018 – Jul 2018
CALI Excellence for the Future Award – Cornell Research Colloquium	December 2017
Fulbright – Argentine Ministry of Education Foreign Student Scholarship	Aug 2017- May 2018

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Interpreter – Cornell Law School Gender Justice Clinic	Jan 2019 – Dec 2019
Research Intern – Cornell Center on the Death Penalty Worldwide	May 2018 – Jul 2018
Law Clerk within the Federal Criminal Appellate Court Public Prosecutor’s Office, Buenos Aires (Argentina)	Apr 2014 – Jul 2017

CONFERENCES AND WORKSHOPS

- “Victims in Control? A Neo-Republican Perspective,” UPF Law & Philosophy PhD Seminars, October 2023.
- “Beyond the Public-Private Distinction in Criminal Law Thought,” Virtual Workshop on the Political Turn(s) in Criminal Law Thinking, November 2022.
- “Abolition from Below: The Role of Civil Society Organizations in Contesting Prisons,” Workshop on Citizenship and Criminal Law, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, June 2022.
- “Una respuesta orientada a las víctimas,” Seminario Iuscrim, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, May 2022.
- “Una respuesta orientada a las víctimas,” Instituto Gioja’s Permanent Seminar in Philosophy of Criminal Law, May 2022.
- “Re-Imagining Criminal Law: The Case for a Victim-Oriented Approach,” Virtual Criminal Law Group organized by the Criminal Law Discussion Group (University of Edinburgh) and the Criminal Law Forum (University of Glasgow), January 2021.
- “Victims in the Criminal Process: A Neo-Republican Perspective,” Virtual Workshop on the Political Turn(s) in Criminal Law Thinking, September 2020.
- “Lawyers in the Argentinian Jury Trial System: Assessing the Challenges of Adapting to a New System,” Law & Society Association Annual Meeting, May 2019.
- “Crimes, Individuals and the Community,” Yale Law School’s 8th Annual Doctoral Scholarship Conference, November 2018.

LANGUAGES

Spanish (native); English (fluent)