Dear Applicant:

The National Bar Association Women Lawyers Division, Philadelphia Chapter (NBA/WLD) was formed to address the challenges to advancement in the legal profession faced by women of color in the Greater Philadelphia area. While significant strides have been made since 1927 when Dr. Sadie T. M. Alexander became the first black woman admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar, women of color continue to face unique obstacles to career advancement in the legal profession. The NBA/WLD remains dedicated to the promotion of diversity in area law schools, law firms and corporations and to providing continuing legal education seminars, mentoring programs, networking opportunities and community service projects.

The Foundation, the charitable arm of the NBA/WLD, administers the Justice Juanita Kidd Stout Tuition Scholarship and Dr. Sadie T. M. Alexander Book Scholarships. Each year, the Foundation awards scholarships to qualified African American female law students who demonstrate a commitment to the principles of Justice Juanita Kidd Stout and Dr. Sadie T. M. Alexander.

Enclosed please find the 2022 Foundation scholarship application protocol (three pages). Up to six (6) Sadie T. M. Alexander Book Fund Scholarships (books and supplies) may be awarded in an amount up to $2,500 each. In addition, one Justice Juanita Kidd Stout Tuition Scholarship may be awarded in the amount of $5,000. Applicants must apply for the tuition scholarship and/or the book fund scholarship; however only one scholarship may be awarded per applicant. Applicants with a 3.0 GPA or higher will automatically be considered for the Stout Tuition Scholarship. Scholarship awardees will be selected based upon criteria as outlined in the attached protocol. That protocol includes a review of the applicant's personal statement, academic performance as well as work and/or community service. Additionally, each applicant may be interviewed by the Scholarship Committee.

All applications MUST be emailed on or before July 11, 2022 to ensure consideration. No late or incomplete applications will be accepted or considered. Scholarships will be awarded by August 29, 2022. Applicants will be notified only if they are awarded a scholarship.

Please visit www.nbawldphila.org for additional information about the scholarships and the work of the NBA/WLD. If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact the Co-chairs of the Scholarship Committee at scholarshipsfdnwld@gmail.com.

Respectfully,

Alisha S. Rodriguez, Chair
The Foundation of the NBA/WLD
Philadelphia Chapter
Justice Juanita Kidd Stout Tuition Scholarship

Justice Juanita Kidd Stout was the first African American woman to sit on the bench in Philadelphia, where she was appointed to the Municipal Court and the first to be elected to the Court of Common Pleas. In 1988, Justice Stout became the first African American woman in the United States to serve on a state Supreme Court.

While known to be tough in the courtroom, Justice Stout was also known as a strong advocate for education with a genuine love of the law. She was a mentor, friend and guiding light for lawyers and judges, both new and seasoned, in the City of Philadelphia and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. When asked how she would like to be remembered, Justice Stout, paraphrasing Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, stated that she would like to be remembered as someone who "tried to do the best with what I have".

It is for these attributes that the Foundation decided to honor her memory by establishing a scholarship in her name. Since 2008, the Justice Juanita Kidd Stout Tuition Scholarship has been offered annually to a deserving African American woman law student who best exemplifies this champion of justice. The scholarship award amount is $5,000.

The tuition scholarship is awarded to a law student who best meets the following criteria as determined by the Foundation of the NBA/WLD:

- Rising 2L or 3L African American woman law student who currently attends the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Drexel University, Beasley School of Law of Temple University, Rutgers (Camden) School of Law, University of Pennsylvania School of Law, Villanova School of Law or Widener University Delaware Law School;

- Demonstrated commitment to community service;

- Demonstrated academic excellence with a 3.0 G.P.A. or better.
Dr. Sadie T. M. Alexander Book Scholarships

Dr. Sadie T. M. Alexander was a woman of many "firsts". She was the first African American woman in the United States to earn a Ph.D. in Economics in 1921. She was not only the first African American woman to graduate from the University of Pennsylvania, School of Law (where she was a member of Law Review) but she was also the first to be admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar in 1927.

Dr. Alexander dedicated much of her life to advancing civil liberties and equal rights. She served on President Harry S. Truman's Commission on Civil Rights and also served as a member of the Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations. In 1962, she was the only African American in the United States to chair such a commission. She helped found the Greater Philadelphia Branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, and for many years, was an active member of its Board of Directors. In 1980, she was appointed Chair of the White House Conference on Aging by then President Jimmy Carter.

The Foundation established book scholarships in Dr. Alexander's honor in 1984 as a tribute to her career and accomplishments; because of her deep belief in obtaining the highest education and training possible and because the pursuit of knowledge through reading was one of Dr. Alexander's greatest pleasures. The Foundation distributes book scholarships to assist deserving young women with the rising cost of books and supplies in law school. The awards range in amounts up to $2,500 each.

The book scholarships are awarded to up to six (6) law students who best meet the following criteria as determined by the Foundation of the NBA/WLD:

- Rising 2L or 3L African American woman law student who currently attends the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Drexel University, Beasley School of Law of Temple University, Rutgers (Camden) School of Law, University of Pennsylvania School of Law, Villanova School of Law or Widener University Delaware Law School;

- Demonstrated commitment to community service;

- Demonstrated academic excellence.

SECOND ANNUAL JUDGE SAMUEL G. DESIMONE
MEMORIAL LEGAL WRITING COMPETITION  2021- 2022

The Cumberland County, Gloucester County, & Salem County Bar Associations are pleased to jointly announce the 2021-2022 legal writing competition in honor of the late Judge Samuel G. DeSimone, former New Jersey Superior Court Assignment Judge of Cumberland County, Gloucester County and Salem County. In so doing, the three county bar associations recognize the importance of excellence in legal writing and seek to award a student enrolled in an ABA-approved law school for authoring a top-quality competition submission.

Judge Samuel G. DeSimone was born March 31, 1931 in Paulsboro, New Jersey. He attended the Paulsboro School System and was a 1948 graduate of Paulsboro High School. Judge DeSimone attended Gettysburg College and Georgetown University School of Law in Washington, D.C., where he was awarded a Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree in 1958. In 1975, he was appointed to the Superior Court Bench by Governor Brendan Byrne. He served in every division of the Superior Court of New Jersey and in 1982 was appointed the first Assignment Judge of Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem Counties, known as Vicinage XV, where he served in that capacity until his retirement in the year 2000. He was the recipient of the V. Robert Payant Award for Excellence in Judicial Teaching.

ELIGIBILITY

The Judge Samuel G. DeSimone Legal Writing Competition is open to full-time and part-time law students who are enrolled in the 2021-2022 academic year in an accredited Law School, who reside in Southern New Jersey. Students must be or have been in good standing at their institutions. Other than being published in a law review or journal at the student’s law school, the submission may not have been previously published. The submission also may not have been submitted for any other competition during the time when it is under consideration for this competition. The submission must be the work of one author alone; joint submissions will not be considered.

TOPIC

Candidates may submit a law review quality submission on the following topic: “Given the sweeping ‘Me Too’ movement throughout the nation, should other states join New Jersey and adopt laws similar to S477/A3648, by expanding the two-year civil statute of limitations to seven years for all victims of sex assault, and make the expansion retroactive?”

AWARD

The author of the first-place submission will receive a cash award of $3,000.00 ($1,000.00 from each of the three county bar associations) and the publication of the winning submission in the three county bar association newsletters and on their websites. The winner of the first-place award will be invited to a meeting of the three county bar associations in the Spring of 2022, at which time the award will be presented, either virtually or in person.

JUDGING

Trustees and officers of the three county bar foundations will evaluate the submissions for the purpose of granting the awards applying the following established criteria: importance of a timely topic, quality, style, thoroughness and depth of research. The submissions will be judged anonymously.

The Minnesota Lawyers Mutual ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship pays tribute to the legacy of R. Bertram (Bert) Greener. Bert Greener was MLM’s Chairman of the Board from its inception in 1981 until September 2019. The Company owes its existence and great success largely to Bert’s vision, optimism, and commitment to the profession. Under Bert’s leadership, MLM grew from a single state professional liability insurance provider to a prominent company, insuring lawyers in more than fifteen states. He remained an active member of MLM’s board and executive committee until his death. A modest man of integrity and high moral character, Bert will be missed by his family and by his many friends at MLM.

Minnesota Lawyers Mutual Insurance Company (MLM) encourages additional applications from incoming law students of color attending law school in Minnesota, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Iowa and the District of Columbia. The deadline for the Fall 2022 cohort is April 15, 2022.

In 2021, MLM pledged $90,000 to fund six scholarships awards for the ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund (LOSF). The LOSF seeks to broaden options for students after law school. These students graduate with less financial burden and are better positioned to pursue careers in the judiciary, academics, government or other public service.

Minnesota Lawyers Mutual pledged $90,000 over three years to the ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund in 2021. We encourage applications from law schools in our core jurisdictions.

The American Bar Association (ABA) awards an annual Legal Opportunity Scholarship to first-year law students of color. The mission of the program is to encourage racial and ethnic minority students to achieve their Juris Doctorate for a more diverse and inclusive legal profession. The ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship grants up to 20 incoming diverse law students with $15,000 each over their three years in school. Since its inception, more than 400 students from across the country have received the ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship. The 2022 ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund application for students entering law school in the Fall 2022 session is open until April 15, 2022.      The Honorable Nathan C. Staller Law Scholarship Award

To Whom it May Concern:

The Honorable Nathan C. Staller Law Scholarship Award was established to honor the late Nathan C. Staller, a member of the Cape May County Bar Association and the New Jersey State Bar Association. Judge Staller distinguished himself not only as a trial attorney in the Southern New Jersey area but also as a Judge of the New Jersey Superior Court in Cape May County, where he served for twelve years. Since its inception in 1988, over $50,000.00 in Scholarship monies have been awarded to outstanding law school students from the Southern New Jersey area.

The scholarship is awarded to qualified law school students who hail from the three Southern New Jersey Counties, Cape May, Atlantic and Cumberland. It is awarded on the basis of academic achievement and financial need. The application form is attached and should be presented to any qualifying students.

Be advised that the deadline for filing applications is May 1, 2022.

Very truly yours,

The Richard L. Barbour, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Awarded By
The Richard L. Barbour, Jr. Scholarship Fund, Inc.

Information and Application

The Richard L. Barbour Scholarship Fund is a non-profit corporation created for the purpose of awarding scholarships and is administered by the Board of Trustees. It anticipates a 2022 scholarship of $5,000.00.

To be eligible, an applicant must be a New Jersey resident attending or accepted for admission to a law school and seeking a career in law enforcement or prosecution. Applications are judged on the criteria of character, academic achievement and a demonstrated desire to pursue a career as a prosecuting attorney, or in another law enforcement capacity.

Applications must be submitted by May 2, 2022.

Ordinarily, the scholarship is presented at the annual PROCOPS (Prosecutor’s Recognition of Citizens or Public Servants) banquet sponsored by the Burlington County Prosecutor’s Office and held in May. Because of the coronavirus pandemic, it is undetermined whether PROCOPS will be held this year. In that event, other arrangements will be made for presentation of the scholarship.

RICHARD L. BARBOUR, JR. (1964-1991)

Rick Barbour was an extraordinary young man; a prosecutor with a deep commitment to justice; and a sincere and caring human being.

He began his education in Moorestown, New Jersey and after graduating from Moorestown High School he received his B.A. from The University of Delaware and his J.D. from Rutgers Law School, Camden.

While in his first year of law school he began an internship at the Burlington County Prosecutor's Office which would continue through school. Upon graduation from law school Rick continued his work in the Juvenile Unit of the Burlington County Prosecutor's Office as an assistant county prosecutor.

Rick vigorously prosecuted juvenile offenders, but this was always tempered by his genuine concern and caring attitude toward all people. Shortly before his tragic death, Rick began work as a new member of an adult trial team with the Burlington County Prosecutor's Office.

In April 1991, Rick Barbour died, the victim of an armed robbery, as a result of a gunshot wound to his head. Rick was a true inspiration to those who knew him, and there were many. His friends and colleagues have established this scholarship foundation in his memory in the hope that his contributions will continue.
