SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

BNY MELLON, N.A. TRUSTEE UNDER WILL RAYMOND J. HARRIS, DEC’D

RAYMOND JOSEPH HARRIS EDUCATIONAL FUND
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19101-7899

Scholarships will be awarded to young men to obtain professional education either in medicine, law, engineering, dentistry or architecture.

This application should be completed and submitted to the Financial Aid Office of your school, which will forward it to the Trustee. All monies awarded are paid directly to schools for credit to the accounts of recipients. Each grant is for one year only and is renewable through the Financial Aid Office, if the recipient maintains the highest scholastic standard of which he is capable, maintains high standards of character and has financial need.

Each student receiving assistance from this Fund is hereby advised that Mr. Harris in his will made the following statement concerning persons receiving assistance as a result of his benefaction. “It is my wish that such persons as may be helped by the income from the estate may by voluntary contribution to my executors and trustees, increase the Fund hereby established in order that eventually there may be established a substantial Fund which will enable deserving young men to obtain a proper education for the professions which they may desire to enter”.

I, ____________________________, hereby apply for assistance to the Raymond Joseph Harris Educational Fund. I have just entered into my ________ year at the ________________________________ and I authorize the school authorities to release my records and other information required for consideration of this application by the Trustee.
