Study Abroad Tuition Example Form

Did you receive a scholarship to attend Villanova Law? If so, it is important to understand that Scholarship awards do not cover the tuition charged by foreign institutions that host Villanova's Study Abroad Programs ("Host School Tuition"). The post-scholarship amount you would owe depends on the amount of your Scholarship and the Host School Tuition, and is calculated according to the following formula:

Assuming you have no outside or endowed scholarship, the minimum amount you will owe is the host school's tuition and the maximum amount you will owe is Villanova's tuition less any school funded scholarship.

If you currently have a scholarship, and/or plan on borrowing federal loans to offset your study abroad costs, please visit the Office of Financial Aid as soon as possible.

Initial I understand that as a student of the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, I am responsible for paying the full amount of tuition for the Widger School of Law.

Initial If you receive a scholarship, depending on the amount, you may be able to use some of the scholarship towards the difference of Villanova's tuition and the Host School's tuition amount.

Initial I understand that I am responsible for the Host School's full tuition, which is included in Villanova's tuition. Please note that Villanova is responsible for remitting payment of the Host School's tuition; so whether a student utilizes Federal Financial Aid or not, payment must be made to the Villanova University Bursar's Office rather than directly to the Host School.
