In early 2015, Chairman and Founder of The Aspire Group, Timothy Shriver, at the World Congress of the United Nations, met Mel Young, Co-Founder of the Homeless World Cup. Inspired by the presentation and partnership, Aspire created a similar initiative to Mel Young's Homeless World Cup.

During the 2016 World Cup, an initiative was launched with the motto: “Heartbeat for the world.” This initiative, which is the world's first Homeless World Cup, was designed to create a world where these stories are the norm, not the exception. Inclusion is not a luxury, it is a fundamental starting point in sport, inclusive of people with physical or intellectual disabilities. They are often the most neglected, vulnerable and marginalized people in every society and culture. But thanks to the Special Olympics, we are creating communities where everyone is included, and the Olympic Games could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities.

Aspire hopes that, like the Homeless World Cup, it can use soccer as a tool to influence stability, friendship & fun in the lives they touch. As a socially responsible community focused company Aspire believes it is our duty to give back. Aspire hopes that, like the Homeless World Cup, it can use soccer as a tool to influence stability, friendship & fun in the lives they touch. Aspire has a strong commitment to the community in which they operate and the social good they create.

Aspire will host tournaments throughout 2017 and 2018 in Atlanta, and relationships with local shelters, Aspire will have access to a strong pool of players. The Atlanta staff will help volunteer and bring the project to life. The first qualifying cup is completed, a team is then selected to represent the USA. A tournament is being held on Friday, March 31, 2017 in Atlanta. Calls are made to local shelters and there is a large turnout.

In 2016, while attending the Conference at The Vatican, Bernie Sanders met with Pope Francis. Here, he endorsed the initiative and inspired the attendees to make a difference in their own communities. His speech was met with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes. The Special Olympics has truly become an international effort with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes.

Eunice Shriver believed that through the power of sport, Special Olympics could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities. They are often the most neglected, vulnerable and marginalized people in every society and culture. But thanks to the Special Olympics, we are creating communities where everyone is included, and the Olympic Games could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities.

As a socially responsible community focused company Aspire believes it is our duty to give back. Aspire hopes that, like the Homeless World Cup, it can use soccer as a tool to influence stability, friendship & fun in the lives they touch. Aspire has a strong commitment to the community in which they operate and the social good they create.

Aspire will host tournaments throughout 2017 and 2018 in Atlanta, and relationships with local shelters, Aspire will have access to a strong pool of players. The Atlanta staff will help volunteer and bring the project to life. The first qualifying cup is completed, a team is then selected to represent the USA. A tournament is being held on Friday, March 31, 2017 in Atlanta. Calls are made to local shelters and there is a large turnout.

In 2016, while attending the Conference at The Vatican, Bernie Sanders met with Pope Francis. Here, he endorsed the initiative and inspired the attendees to make a difference in their own communities. His speech was met with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes. The Special Olympics has truly become an international effort with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes.

Special Olympics creates environment of Inclusion for people like Eunice Kennedy Shriver, founder of the Special Olympics, and people with intellectual disabilities. They are often the most neglected, vulnerable and marginalized people in every society and culture. But thanks to the Special Olympics, we are creating communities where everyone is included, and the Olympic Games could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities.

As a socially responsible community focused company Aspire believes it is our duty to give back. Aspire hopes that, like the Homeless World Cup, it can use soccer as a tool to influence stability, friendship & fun in the lives they touch. Aspire has a strong commitment to the community in which they operate and the social good they create.

Aspire will host tournaments throughout 2017 and 2018 in Atlanta, and relationships with local shelters, Aspire will have access to a strong pool of players. The Atlanta staff will help volunteer and bring the project to life. The first qualifying cup is completed, a team is then selected to represent the USA. A tournament is being held on Friday, March 31, 2017 in Atlanta. Calls are made to local shelters and there is a large turnout.

In 2016, while attending the Conference at The Vatican, Bernie Sanders met with Pope Francis. Here, he endorsed the initiative and inspired the attendees to make a difference in their own communities. His speech was met with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes. The Special Olympics has truly become an international effort with passionate support from heads of state, global leaders, luminaries, and athletes.

Eunice Shriver believed that through the power of sport, Special Olympics could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities. They are often the most neglected, vulnerable and marginalized people in every society and culture. But thanks to the Special Olympics, we are creating communities where everyone is included, and the Olympic Games could transform the lives of the athletes and the world, one person at a time, through the acceptance and inclusion of people with disabilities.