

The Villanova University Clothesline Project is bearing witness to violence against women.

April 25, 2019
9:00 am till 6:30 pm
The Kennedy Ellipse

The Clothesline Project is an initiative that was started in Cape Cod, MA, in 1990. The concept is simple—let people tell their stories through words and artwork on t-shirts that hang on a community clothesline.

The Villanova University Clothesline Project contains over 250 shirts designed by Villanovans.

As a caring community, Villanova University acknowledges the stories of survivors of sexual violence and reminds our students that they are not alone. For anyone who has been affected by sexual violence, please know that some of the messages and artwork may be upsetting. If you wish to avoid this initiative, please avoid traveling through the Quad and Ellipse on Thursday, April 25th from 8am-7pm.

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month
