The Villanova University Semester Recess will begin on Saturday, October 8, and continue through Sunday, October 16. Campus services will be limited during this time. Please read the information below for helpful details regarding University operations.

PUBLIC SAFETY:

- Public Safety can be contacted in case of emergency at 610-519-4444.
- For non-emergencies, or to reach an on-call residence life staff member, please call 610-519-5800.

STUDENT HEALTH CENTER:

Operational hours for the Student Health Center are as follows:

- Saturday October 8: Open until 3pm
- Sunday, October 9: Closed
- Monday, October 10 – Friday, October 14: Open 8am-4pm
- Sunday, October 15: Open at 12pm and resume 24/7 care

Anyone with specific COVID questions may call COVID phone 484-432-7950.

A list of local health resources, including pharmacies, hospitals, and urgent care locations can be found on the Student Health Center website.

RESIDENCE LIFE:

- Kitchen Access: Students staying on campus over the Semester Recess will have Wildcard access to the communal kitchens on the first floor in Hovnanian Hall and Trinity Hall in The Commons. These kitchens will be lightly stocked with cooking supplies, however, students will be expected to bring their own food/ingredients and clean up after themselves. Please do not plan to leave food for another time in a pot or pan so other students may use those tools as well.
- All Villanova University and residence hall policies remain in effect during the Semester Recess.
• This will be a low occupancy time on campus. For your safety, do not allow individuals not assigned to your residence hall or apartment access to your building or prop doors.
• Always carry your Wildcard with you.

DINING SERVICES:
• Meals plans follow the academic calendar and are not active during Semester Recess. Guest meals will remain active and are accepted in select locations. You can also use Points, NovaBucks or a credit card.
• Dining halls will reopen on Sunday, October 16, beginning with brunch in St. Mary’s and Donahue halls, and dinner in Dougherty Hall.

Students may find more information about specific dining halls and hours on the Fall Break Dining Services website, or by contacting dining services with any questions at diningservices@villanova.edu.
