INVESTIGATION OCCURS

REVIEW, INVESTIGATION, AND RESOLUTION

The University will assist any Complainant or Respondent in understanding the complaint process outlined in the University's policy. There are several options available to resolve a report of sexual assault, sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct, (dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking.) These options include both on- and off-campus processes. In general, the University, will consult with the Complainant prior to pursuing an investigation and must weigh requests to not pursue a report against our obligation to provide a safe environment for all community members, including the Complainant.

RESOLUTION OPTIONS AND INTERIM MEASURES

- Complaints against students will be resolved under the applicable provision(s) of the Code of Student Conduct.
- Complaints against employees will be resolved by the appropriate University process.
- The Sexual Assault Resource Coordinator (SARC), the Title IX Investigator, the Title IX Coordinator, Respondent Resource Coordinator and/or the Dean of Students Office can assist students with interim measures such as: academic, housing, or other accommodations; referrals; and other needed support.
- Public Safety and/or the Dean of Students Office may issue a no-contact order between the involved parties.
- Students who report misconduct in good faith will not be subject to disciplinary action for their own personal consumption of alcohol or other drugs.
- The University will promptly complete the administrative investigation and resolution of all reports.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

- Bryn Mawr Hospital Emergency Room 484-337-3582

Physicians are required by law to report sexual violence to the local police authorities. You may choose whether or not to speak with the police.

Student Rights and Options for Resolution

All students have access to resources and support at any time before, during and after a process. The chart below represents the options for resolution once a report is made.

RESOURCES AND SUPPORT ARE ALWAYS AVAILABLE THROUGHOUT THE PROCESS

Students involved in a report have the following rights

The right to:

- A prompt and impartial response and resolution
- Notify law enforcement
- Be informed of on and off campus support and resources
- Choose whether or not to participate in the University's process
- Have an advisor of choice
- Be free from retaliation
- Appeal consistent with the Code of Student Conduct

 See complete list of procedural rights listed in Code of Student Conduct

Administrative* investigations can be conducted by the Title IX Investigator for on and off campus allegations; Villanova Police can conduct criminal investigations for on campus allegations. If both administrative and criminal investigations are occurring simultaneously, the Title IX Investigator and Villanova Police investigators typically work together throughout the investigation and share information with one another. Should a student wish to make a criminal complaint for an off campus incident, the SARC, Title IX Investigator and/or a Public Safety representative can accompany a Complainant to the police department with jurisdiction and assist a Complainant in making a criminal report.
