Dear Villanova families,

As your child returns to campus life, the Office of Health Promotion has several programs in place to help them learn more about healthy relationships and how to prevent violence.

Healthy Relationships

The Office of Health Promotion offers resources and workshops to help students develop healthy relationship skills. These programs are available on-campus and online (when available) to celebrate Black History Month. Click here for full details.

Forward Focused: Health Promotion

As your child returns to campus life, the Office of Health Promotion has several programs in place to help them learn more about healthy relationships and how to prevent violence.

Student Involvement Fair

The Student Involvement Fair, on Tuesday, Feb. 7 from 5-8 p.m. in the Villanova Room in the Connelly Center. This event provides a platform for students to explore the many volunteer and involvement opportunities available on campus to enhance the student experience. Along with reading this edition of Parent and Family Connection, I encourage you to follow the Office of Parent and Family Relations on Instagram!
