

Trees of Villanova

Welcome to Villanova!

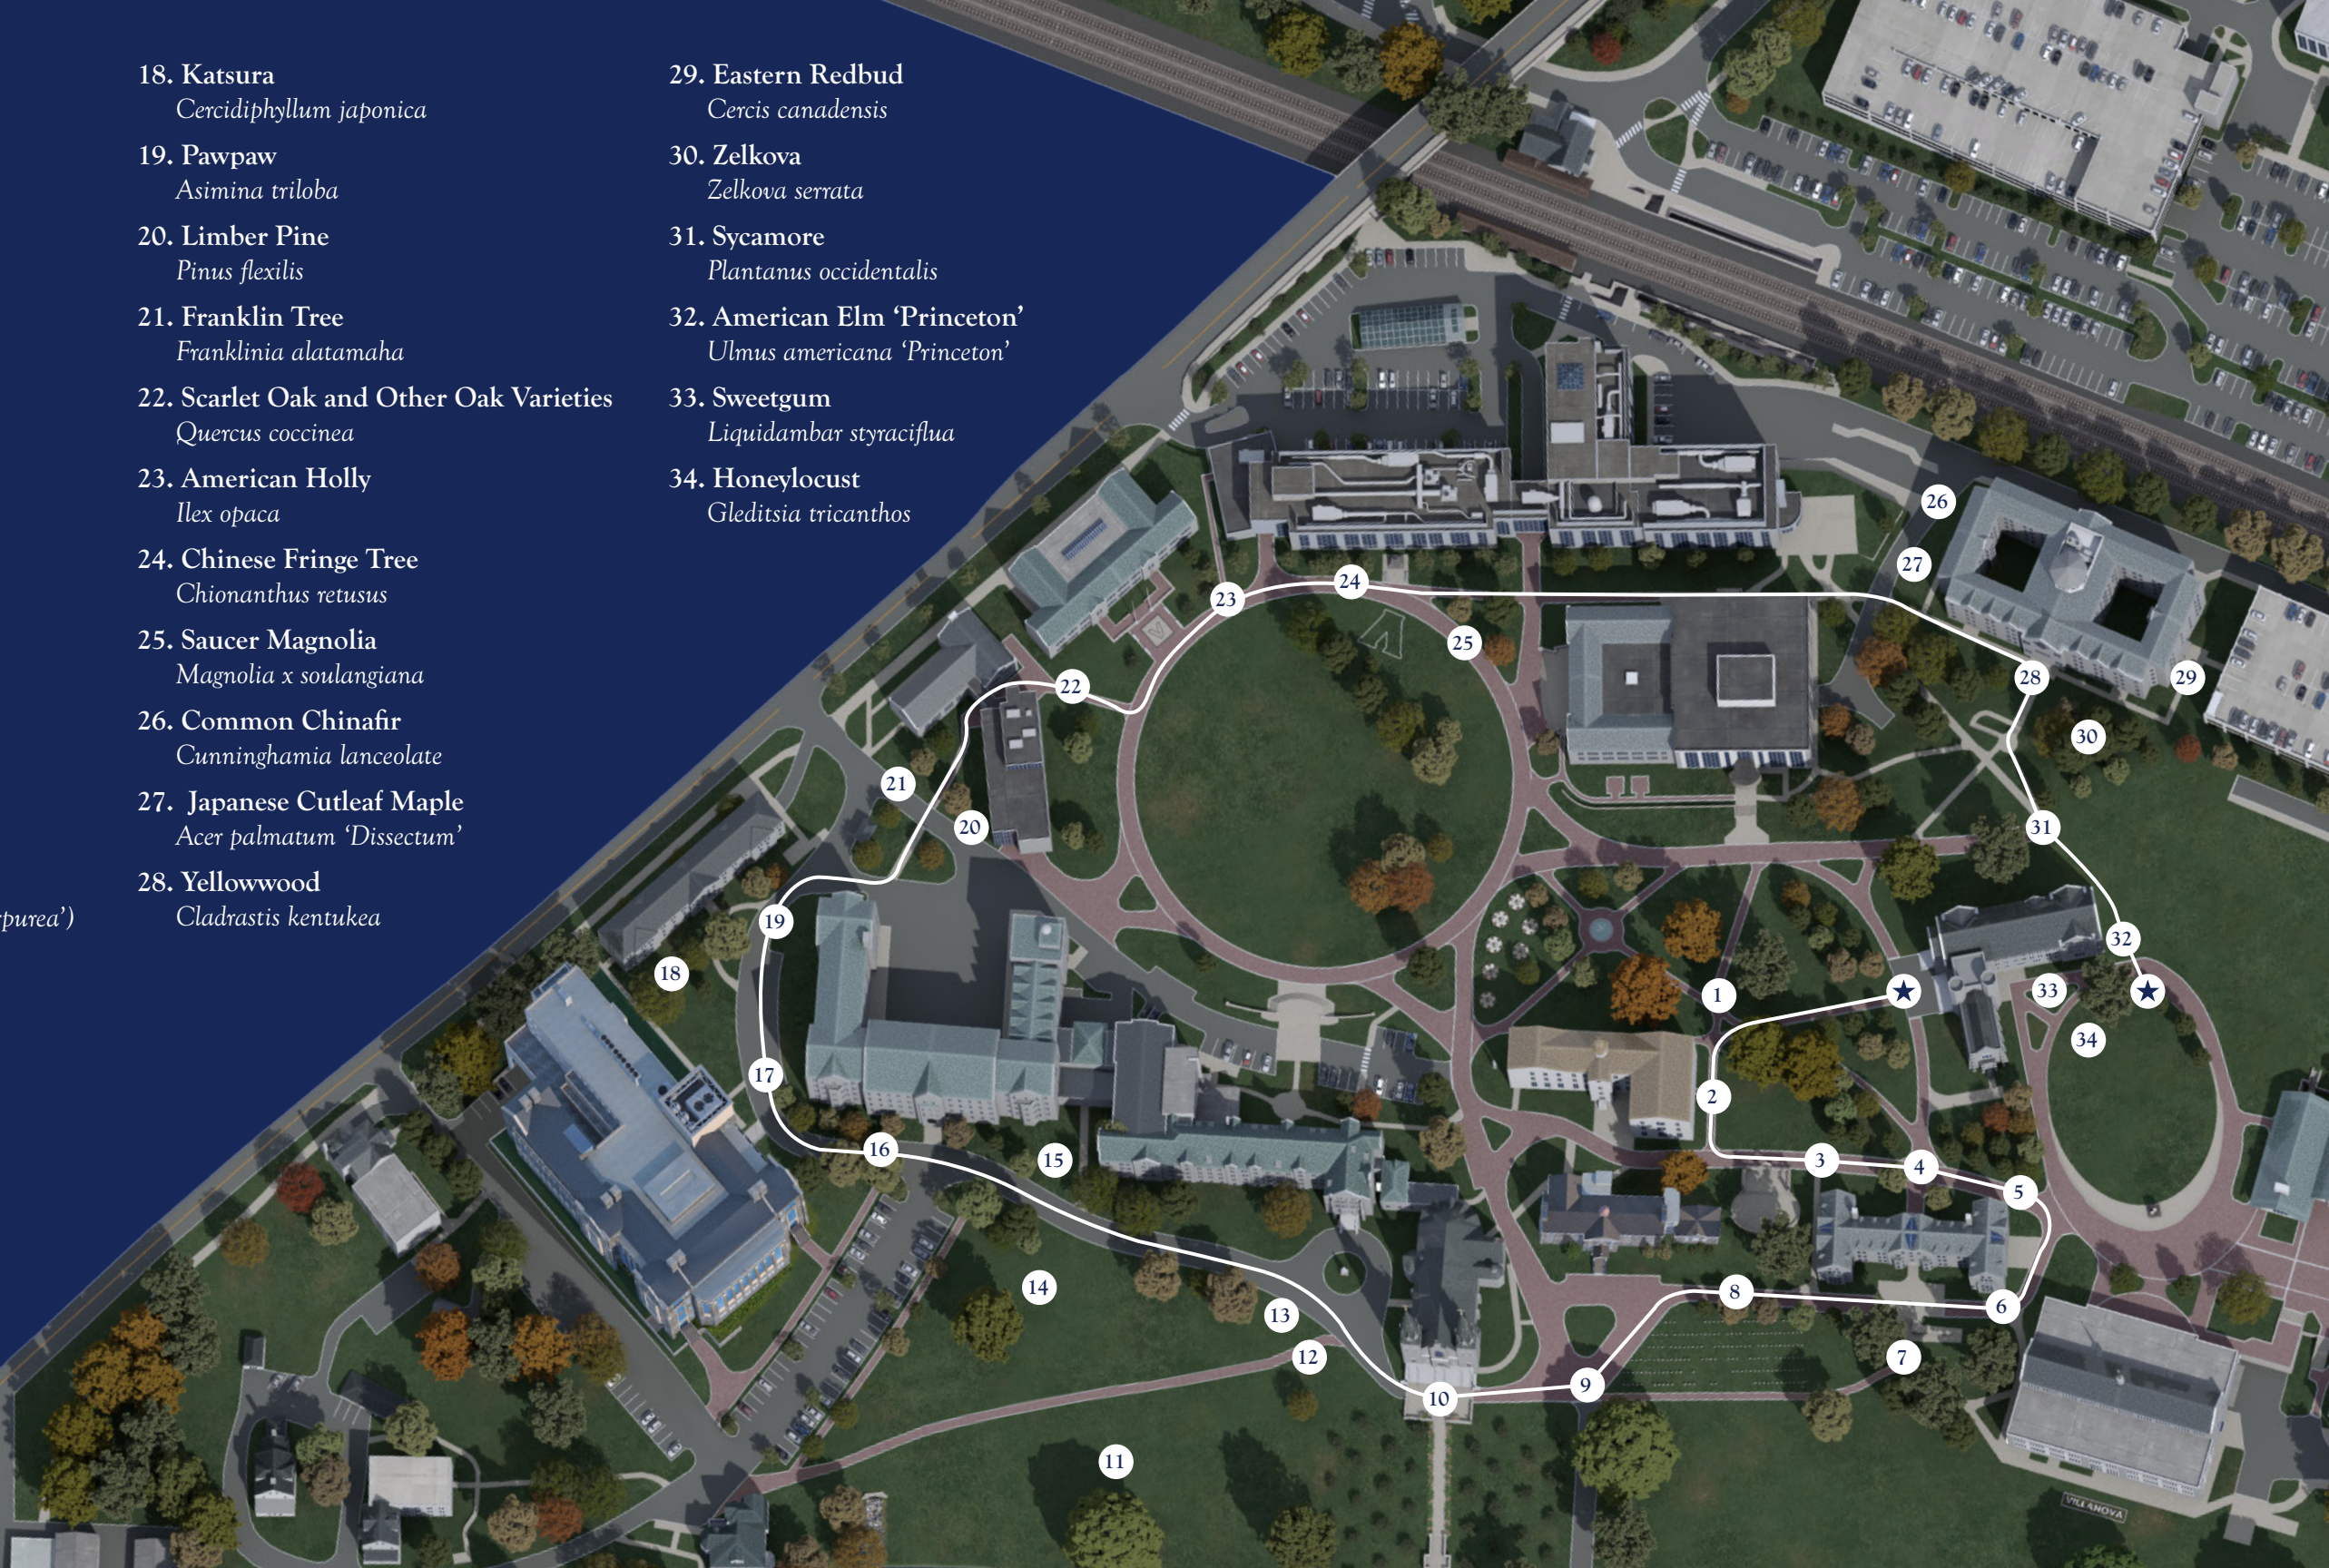

Join the Villanova University Grounds Department on a seasonal tour or use this map for a self-guided tour.

1. Bur Oak
Quercus macrocarpa
2. American Larch
Larix laricina
3. Paperbark Maple
Acer griseum
4. Evergreen Magnolia
Magnolia grandiflora
5. Sweetbay Magnolia
Magnolia virginiana
6. Flowering Dogwood
Cornus florida
7. Ginkgo/ Maidenhair Tree
Ginkgo biloba
8. American Linden
Tilia americana
9. Tricolor Beech
Fagus sylvatica 'Purpurea Tricolor'
10. Crabapple Orchard
Malus 'Sutyzam' Sugar Tyme
11. European Copper Beech
Fagus sylvatica 'Atropunicea' ('Purpurea')
12. Deodar Cedar
Cedrus deodara
13. Dawn Redwood
Metasequoia glyptostroboides
14. Weeping Beech
Fagus sylvatica 'Pendula'
15. Heritage River Birch
Betula nigra 'Heritage'
16. Japanese Cedar
Cryptomeria japonica
17. Eastern Hemlock
Tsuga canadensis

18. Katsura
Cercidiphyllum japonica
19. Pawpaw
Asimina triloba
20. Limber Pine
Pinus flexilis
21. Franklin Tree
Franklinia alatamaha
22. Scarlet Oak and Other Oak Varieties
Quercus coccinea
23. American Holly
Ilex opaca
24. Chinese Fringe Tree
Chionanthus retusus
25. Saucer Magnolia
Magnolia x soulangiana
26. Common Chinafir
Cunninghamia lanceolata
27. Japanese Cutleaf Maple
Acer palmatum 'Dissectum'
28. Yellowwood
Cladrastis kentukea

29. Eastern Redbud
Cercis canadensis
30. Zelkova
Zelkova serrata
31. Sycamore
Plantanus occidentalis
32. American Elm 'Princeton'
Ulmus americana 'Princeton'
33. Sweetgum
Liquidambar styraciflua
34. Honeylocust
Gleditsia tricanthos

“The best time to plant a tree was 20 year ago.
The second best time is now.”

Chinese Proverb

An Arbor Day Foundation Program

Questions? Contact hugh.weldon@villanova.edu

For more information visit villanova.edu/FMO