

Application Guidelines for KAKEHASHI Project Japan's Friendship Ties Programs

Haverford College, Bryn Mawr College, Villanova University, Ursinus College

KAKEHASHI Project

To promote people-to-people exchange between Japan and nations worldwide, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan conducts Japan's Friendship Ties Programs, which send approximately 5,600 people to or from Japan each year. The North American portion of these programs is called the KAKEHASHI Project. The Japanese word "kakehashi" means "bridge," which symbolizes the hope that participants will form lasting relationships with Japan and its people, and serve as bridges between nations and cultures. Participants who travel to Japan are encouraged to share their experiences and discoveries with their networks at home, and contribute to greater appreciation of Japanese culture worldwide. The KAKEHASHI Project is an exchange program with the objective of promoting understanding of Japan in North America, and should not be considered a training course to develop special skills.

Objectives

- To promote mutual trust and understanding among the peoples of Japan, the US and Canada, and to build a basis for future friendship and cooperation
