

SOCIOLOGY COURSES

SOC 1000 - INTRO TO SOCIOLOGY

Description: Introduction to the analysis of social behavior, emphasis on socialization, collective and group behavior. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Core Social Science

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 1000-001	TR	11:30-12:45	Bergey
002	TR	1:00-2:15	Bergey
003	TR	2:30-3:45	Bracey
004	TR	4:00-5:15	Bracey
005	TR	11:30-12:45	Hodges
006	MW	1:30-2:45	Jones
007	MW	3:00-4:15	Jones
008	TR	8:30-9:45	Eckstein
009	MWF	11:30-12:20	Kramer

SOC 2200 - SOCIOLOGY OF DEVIANCE

Description: A sociological examination of rule-breaking behavior; causal theories of deviance; types of deviance and their distribution in contemporary society. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Criminology, Core Social Science

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 2200-001	TR	10:00-11:15	Arvanites
--------------	----	-------------	-----------

SOC 2300 - SOCIOLOGY OF THE FAMILY

Description: Institutional organization of mate selection, courtship, and marriage relationships in American society; family relationships and functions; family disorganization and change. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Core Social Science, Gender & Women's Studies, Diversity Requirement 2

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 2300-001	TR	1:00-2:15	Hodges
--------------	----	-----------	--------

SOCIOLOGY COURSES

SOC 2400 - SOCIOLOGY OF SOCIAL WORK

Description: History and development of social welfare; basic issues in social welfare planning and administration. The major methods of social work, practice; social casework, group work and community organization, in such areas as child welfare, family service and counseling, probation and corrections. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Core Social Science

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 2400-001

TR

8:30-9:45

Meloney

SOC 3300 - SOCIOLOGY OF LAW

Description: The meaning, origin, and impact of law viewed from several sociological perspectives; the law in action and the social context of legal professions. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Criminology, Core Social Science, Public Policy & Ethics

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 3300-001

TR

2:30-3:45

McCorkel

SOC 3400 - MEDICAL SOCIOLOGY

Description: This course explores the social dimensions of health, disease and illness, focusing especially on the social experience of illness, the social determinants of disease, and the role and meaning of medicine and public health in modern U.S. society. The class examines how we define health problems and their solutions, and it considers the ways in which race, gender, class, and their solutions, and it considers the ways in which race, gender, class, and social connections matter for understanding health-related experiences and discourses. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Core Social Science

SOC 3400-001

TR

4:00-5:15

Bergey

SOCIOLOGY COURSES

SOC 3600 - RACE AND ETHNIC RELATIONS

Description: Development of race and ethnic relationships in America; the impact of power-conflict relations on race and ethnic patterns; particular attention given to development from early 1950's to present. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Core Social Science, Criminology, Africana Studies, Latin American Studies, Diversity Requirement 1

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

SOC 3600-001

MWF

10:30-11:20

Kramer

SOC 3800 - SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

Description: The sociological study of social movements, including mobilization, participation, tactics, goals and ideology; the social contexts in which movements arise and develop; the nature and influence of historical and contemporary movements and activism. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Africana Studies, Peace and Justice

SOC 3800-001

TR

11:30-12:45

Bracey

HON 5750 - BASEBALL AMERICAN DREAM

Description: 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: Africana Studies, Gender & Women's Studies, Peace and Justice, Diversity Requirement 1, Diversity Requirement 2

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate

HON 5750-001

TR

11:30-12:45

Joyce

Theory

SOC 5050 - SOC THEORY AND PUBLIC POLICY

Description: Influence of sociological ideas on social policies. Students will be expected to design a theoretically driven empirical study which impacts on some public policy. 3.00 Credit(s)

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Sociology

Prerequisites: SOC 1000

SOC 5050-001

TR

10:00-11:15

Eckstein

SOCIOLOGY COURSES

Research

SOC 5300 - DATA ANALYSIS - SOCIAL SCIENTIST

Description: Basic methods of sociological research including the collection and organization of data, statistical analysis, testing hypotheses and the interpretation of data. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: A&S Research Requirement, Criminology

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate
Must be enrolled in one of the following Majors: Sociology/Criminology

SOC 5300-001

TR

10:00-11:15

DeFina

SOC 5400 - APPLIED RESEARCH IN SOCIOLOGY

Description: The development of real-world research skills through the application of sociological methods. Special emphasis is given to sampling, measurement and evaluative research. 3.00 Credit(s)

Course Attributes: A&S Research Requirement, Criminology

Restrictions: Must be enrolled in one of the following levels: Undergraduate
Must be enrolled in one of the following Majors: Sociology/Criminology

SOC 5400-001

MW

1:30-2:45

Remster