Come back to Villanova Law! November 4-5, 2016

Alumni Welcome Dean Alexander
This fall, many of you came out to give Dean Alexander a warm Villanova welcome. Check out the event photos below:

- Northern NJ – Thursday, September 15, 2016
- Philadelphia, PA – Thursday, September 22, 2016
- Washington, DC – Thursday, October 13, 2016

Class Notes: Villanova Law Wants to Hear from You!
The Villanova Law Alumni network comprises more than 10,000 lawyers doing remarkable work around the country. If you have recently
Dean Alexander in the Media

Mark C. Alexander, Arthur J. Kania Dean, recently appeared on CBS This Morning Saturday and MSNBC to discuss the Presidential Debates. Dean Alexander, who served as an adviser and issues director for several high-profile political campaigns, shared his insight into debate prep for the candidates. To view his appearance on CBS, please click here.

The Dean also penned an op-ed for The National Law Journal, in which he urges law students to learn from each other, seeking out individuals with differing backgrounds and beliefs from their own.

Read More

FOLLOW THE DEAN
Stay up to date with the Dean by following him on Twitter @MarkCAlexander

Campaign Exceeds $60 Million
The Villanova Law Campaign to Ignite Change continues with great momentum, recently started a new job, been promoted, received a prestigious award or spoken at conference, we want to know about it! Send your updates to alumni@law.villanova.edu.

John (Marc) Goodman ’74 is running unopposed for a fifth term as county attorney for Lyon County, Kansas.

Courtenay R. Dunn ’07 was selected as part of the annual “On the Rise - Top 40 Young Lawyers” by the American Bar Association.

Carl Solano ’76 was appointed by Governor Tom Wolf to be a judge of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

David B. Clement ’86 of Smith Anderson was included among The Best Lawyers in America 2017 for Corporate Law.

Freda Pepper ’91 joined Reed Smith LLP as counsel in the firm’s State Tax Group. Pepper was most recently Deputy Chief Compliance Officer at Keane, a leading consulting and compliance firm specializing in unclaimed property services.
surpassing $60 million in gifts and pledges in support of expanding student opportunities and financial aid, attracting and supporting world class teacher-scholars, cultivating curricular innovation, and positioning Villanova Law and its graduates for continued excellence.

To learn more about the Campaign and giving opportunities in the areas of student scholarships, faculty support, innovative programs, clinics, and the Fund for Villanova Law, click here.

Campaign Committee: Charles Widger ’73 (Chair), Samuel H. Becker ’78, Harry S. Cherken, Jr. ’76, J. Gordon Cooney, Jr. ’84, Joseph V. Del Raso ’74 VSB, ’83 CWSL, Stephen D. Ford ’73, Constance B. Girard-diCarlo ’74, Amb. David F. Girard-diCarlo ’73, Michael J. Heller ’89, Arthur J. Kania ’56, John P. Moses ’71, Jody B. Seibert ’96, Kathleen M. Shay ’74 CLAS ’77 CWSL, Joseph A. Tate ’63 CLAS ’66 CWSL.

Lee Stein ’78 Presents on Innovation and Entrepreneurship
On October 20, the John F. Scarpa Center for Law and Entrepreneurship welcomed back to campus Lee Stein ’78 for a lecture on innovation for the benefit of humanity.

Stein is the Founder and Chairman of Virtual Group, LLC, a private holding company focused on early-stage technologies as well as Prize Capital, LLC. Prize Capital, LLC supports the X Prize Foundation, funding global competitions aimed at discovering innovative solutions in the areas of energy and the environment. Stein also co-founded the Southern California chapter of Environmental Entrepreneurs which is affiliated with the Natural Resources Defense Council.

Girard-diCarlo Center Hosts Gov. Huntsman
The David F. and Constance B. Girard-diCarlo Center for Ethics,
Integrity and Compliance hosted a special event featuring Jon M. Huntsman Jr.—former governor of Utah, former U.S. Ambassador to China and Singapore and 2012 Presidential candidate—titled “Ethics, Integrity and Civility (or the lack thereof) in Politics,” on October 17. Governor Huntsman shared his views on how citizens and lawmakers can fix the broken politics of Washington, D.C. Click here for video from the event. To watch the recording of the event, please click here.

Scholar-Practitioner Leads the Way
For his outstanding work in the field of sentencing, Professor Steven Chanenson recently was awarded the prestigious Richard P. Kern Memorial Award by the National Association of Sentencing Commissions (NASC). The award is given by the NASC in recognition of an individual who has contributed greatly to the development of sentencing policy and research.

In Memoriam
The Villanova Law Community mourns the loss of Patricia Schreck ’88 and Dr. Stephen Anderer ’92.