The Honors Program is pleased to announce that it is accepting applications for the Anne Quinn Welsh Honors Faculty Fellows Program. Funded by the generosity of Anne Welsh McNulty, this initiative aims to increase the presence of tenured faculty in Honors, drawing on their experience and wisdom to staff courses as well as advise and mentor students.

Successful applicants will be appointed to a two year term and will retain their appointment in their home department. They will teach a 2-2 load in exchange for their advising and mentoring responsibilities in Honors. Faculty Fellows would agree to teach at least one Honors course each semester during their appointment (the home department’s cost for any course reduction will be offset by the funds from the Anne Quinn Welsh Endowment). Two faculty members will be chosen to commence their terms at the start of the 2017-2018 academic year. The program is open to tenured faculty at Villanova.

Applicants should submit a CV that includes contact information for 2 references; a letter of intent explaining how the applicant will contribute to Honors; and evidence of teaching excellence. Applicants should also submit a brief letter or email of support from their department chair that acknowledges their application. The search committee will be drawn from members of the Honors Council as well as current Fellows.

Applications are due to the Honors office by 5:00 pm on October 17th. Feel free to direct any questions to: thomas.w.smith@villanova.edu or allison.payne@villanova.edu.
