

Application to Recycle Plastic Chemical Containers

All of the criteria below must be met for an empty plastic chemical container to be recycled

- The chemical stored in the container must be Non RCRA hazardous. The full chemical name and or product name with manufacturer and manufacturer code must be provided for verification.
- The container must be 100% empty and free of all residue. Triple rinsing is required
- The container must not be stained, discolored, and can have no odor of the chemical.
- The chemical label must be completely removed.

	Chemical or product name / manufacturer	container size	number of containers generated / month
1
2
3
4
5

Send your completed application to recycle@villanova.edu

- A specially recycling bin will be provided for each lab with recyclable plastic containers
- When the bins are filled, please put in a work order and Recycling Ric will empty your bin.
- Tape a copy of the approved application to the bin in your lab. ONLY CHEMICAL CONTAINERS LISTED ON THIS APPLICATION MAY GO IN YOUR BIN.